

Dear Customer,

As schools in Scotland finish up for the summer we're looking ahead to what should be a busy selling month. We have a brilliant variety of new titles joining our range, which are going to be great additions for all displays this summer. We are also pleased to announce that we are now distributing for Gaelic publisher CLÀR Publishing, and you can find a list of their titles on the back page of this letter. There really are too many new products to fit in the letter, so make sure to look at our website to see more!

Let's start with our July highlights-

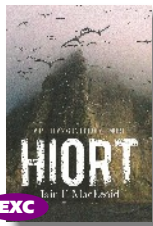

Air Cuan Dubh Drilseach - CLÀR - PB - 14818 - £9.99

A Gaelic adventure set in outer space is one of our range highlights from CLÀR. This book is full of interesting turns where beings both like ourselves and unlike ourselves are against each other. A great story which raises big questions about morals, politics and more which will be a favourite for customers who are deep-thinkers and want a challenging read.
